Memo

Date: August 22, 2008
To: Buyers Considering Foreclosed Property
From: Niel Thomas, ABR, CCIM, CRS, Associate Broker
Bethany Stamper, Licensed Assistant
Subject: Licensee disclosure concerning property condition
Waiver of property disclosure form

The attached package consists of disclosures that I am making concerning the property at 780 Hunt Circle.

In addition to the information in the pages attached, the following disclosures are provided:

Built-in appliances, light fixtures, ceiling fan are missing.

Deck railing, stairs to deck are loose and unsafe. Front door step has dropped and is unsafe.

Downstairs bath tile will need replacement.

Carpets and vinyl are stained and torn in places.

Walls and ceilings have holes that were probably cut out to access plumbing leaks for repair.

Garage is heated by venting in ducts; not allowed per current codes. No unit heater in garage. Humidifier does not appear to be operational.

When you make an offer on this property you are required to initial your receipt of this cover memo and every page of the package.

Please review the Alaska Real Estate Commission Consumer Pamphlet that was given to you either by myself before I provided you with "specific assistance" concerning the property, or by the licensee who represents you. That pamphlet outlines the duties that real estate licensees owe the public in all relationships. Please note that these duties do not include the duty "to conduct an independent investigation of a property". You are specifically advised that I and my firm have not conducted an independent investigation of this property, and do not plan to do so.

Determining the condition of the property, which was acquired in foreclosure by a lending institution, is your responsibility. What is required by law to be disclosed by myself as a licensee is attached hereto and represents all the information that I will be providing.

Finally, please note the waiver form that is part of this package. Alaska law provides that a buyer and seller may waive the obligation for them to complete the form provided by the Alaska Real Estate Commission. This institutional owner requires this waiver be executed as a condition of selling the property to you.

22. FINAL OFFER ACCEPTANCE IS SUBJECT TO INVESTOR APPROVAL.
23. Seller shall have a minimum of thirty (30) days from the earlier of the closing date or the date upon which Seller receives a copy of a title insurance commitment/title report within which to resolve title exceptions, defects, or other title issues which in any way impede or impair Seller's ability to convey insurable title. If, within such thirty (30) day period, Seller determines that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such matters, the Buyer (I) may take title in its then state, thereby waiving any title objections, or (II) terminate the contract and receive a refund of any deposit as Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy. 25. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addendum, or counter offer, in any action or proceeding between buyer and seller, seller does not agree to indemnify or hold broker(s) harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, cost, damages or expenses incurred by Broker(s).
26. Seller makes no representation and advises buyers to make their own investigation to determine the source of the water supply and type of sewage disposal system.
27. This property may be subject to a redemption period per your State's requirements. It is important that you check with the closing attorney or closing agent on your sale to see if these periods have expired, as the subject property would not be available for closing until the period that applies has expired, or could possibly not close due to a prior mortgagor or lien holder exercising their option according to the applicable period that would apply in your State. Seller makes no guarantees or representations on timeframes of expiration of redemption periods as may apply in your State. Should one of the above periods apply to your sale, and prohibit closing, Buyer may exercise their option to cancel the contract of sale and receive earnest monies back from Seller.
