Memo

Date: December 17, 2008
To: Buyers Considering Foreclosed Property
From: Niel Thomas, ABR, CCIM, CRS, Associate Broker
Bethany Stamper, Licensed Assistant
Subject: Licensee disclosure concerning property condition
Waiver of property disclosure form

The attached package consists of disclosures that I am making concerning the property at 3465 Lunar Dr.

In addition to the information in the pages attached, the following disclosures are provided:

Appliances, fixtures are missing. One pane of two windows are broken. Carpets stained and damaged. As-is price reflects these conditions and does not include seller correcting these or other deficiencies.

When you make an offer on this property you are required to initial your receipt of this cover memo and every page of the package.

Please review the Alaska Real Estate Commission Consumer Pamphlet that was given to you either by myself before I provided you with "specific assistance" concerning the property, or by the licensee who represents you. That pamphlet outlines the duties that real estate licensees owe the public in all relationships. Please note that these duties do not include the duty "to conduct an independent investigation of a property". You are specifically advised that I and my firm have not conducted an independent investigation of this property, and do not plan to do so.

Determining the condition of the property, which was acquired in foreclosure by a lending institution, is your responsibility. What is required by law to be disclosed by myself as a licensee is attached hereto and represents all the information that I will be providing.

Finally, please note the waiver form that is part of this package. Alaska law provides that a buyer and seller may waive the obligation for them to complete the form provided by the Alaska Real Estate Commission. This institutional owner requires this waiver be executed as a condition of selling the property to you.

There shall be no pro-ratio adjustment. This paragraph controls all pro-rations as described, regardless of language to the contrary in the offer, addendum or counter offer.
21. The Buyer shall not be allowed, under any circumstance, to receive funds from the closing that exceed the amount of the earnest money plus prepaid deposits paid by the Buyer. In the event that the proposed HUD reflects proceeds to the Buyer in excess of the earnest money and prepaid deposits, the closing cost credit by Seller shall be reduced so that the Buyer receives an amount exactly equal to the earnest money amount, plus prepaid deposits by the Buyer.
22. FINAL OFFER ACCEPTANCE IS SUBJECT TO INVESTOR APPROVAL.
23. Seller shall have a minimum of thirty (30) days from the earlier of the closing date or the date upon which Seller receives a copy of a title insurance commitment/title report within which to resolve title exceptions, defects, or other title issues which in any way impede or impair Seller's ability to convey insurable title. If, within such thirty (30) day period, Seller determines that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such matters, the Buyer (I) may take title in its then state, thereby waiving any title objections, or (II) terminate the contract and receive a refund of any deposit as Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy. Alternatively, in such circumstances, Seller may terminate the contract and refund Buyer's deposit, such refund being Buyer's exclusive remedy for such termination. In the event Seller fails to resolve such issues within the aforesaid thirty (30) day period, it shall be presumed that Seller has determined that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such issues.
24. Termination of Contract: In the event the Contract is terminated by Seller pursuant to any provision of the Contract, this Addendum, or any other addendum or counter offer, Seller's sole liability to Buyer will be to return Buyer's deposit, at which time the Contract shall cease and terminate and Seller and Buyer shall have no further obligations, liabilities or responsibilities to one another. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addenda or counter offer, if buyer defaults in the performance of the contract, 100% of the earnest money will go the seller

25. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addendum, or counter offer, in any action or proceeding between buyer and seller, seller does not agree to indemnify or hold broker(s) harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, cost, damages or expenses incurred by Broker(s).
26. Seller makes no representation and advises buyers to make their own investigation to determine the source of the water supply and type of sewage disposal system.
27. This property may be subject to a redemption period per your State's requirements. It is important that you check with the closing attorney or closing agent on your sale to see if these periods have expired, as the subject property would not be available for closing until the period that applies has expired, or could possibly not close due to a prior mortgagor or lien holder exercising their option according to the applicable period that would apply in your State. Seller makes no guarantees or representations on timeframes of expiration of redemption periods as may apply in your State. Should one of the above periods apply to your sale, and prohibit closing, Buyer may exercise their option to cancel the contract of sale and receive earnest monies back from Seller. No additional compensation will be paid by Seller for any expenditure made by Buyer regarding this property.
28. Buyer(s) shall remain solely responsible and liable to the Seller for Buyer(s)' performance of each and every warranty and obligation under this agreement.
