Memo

Date: June 12, 2008
To: Buyers Considering Foreclosed Property
From: Niel Thomas, ABR, CCIM, CRS, Associate Broker
Bethany Stamper, Licensed Asssistant
Subject: Licensee disclosure concerning property condition
Waiver of property disclosure form

The attached package consists of disclosures that I am making concerning the property at 1493 Moss Creek Ave.

In addition to the information in the pages attached, the following disclosures are provided:

Home is missing all appliances except mechanical equipment and garbage disposal. No garage door opener. Most interior door hardware has been removed; doors are present, no window coverings. Most closet shelves missing. Many light fixtures, ceiling fan if there was one are not present. Carpet in one bedroom stained. Stair railing not attached to wall at top. Price reflects condition and these known defects. This is an as-is sale with no repairs implied in the price. Property may not qualify for FHA/VA; cash or conventional offers will receive priority consideration. Seller only pays owner's title insurance and 1/2 closing cost of its law firm in Bellevue that coordinates closing. Buyer pays all other costs, including courtesy closing fee at local title company.

When you make an offer on this property you are required to initial your receipt of this cover memo and every page of the package.

Please review the Alaska Real Estate Commission Consumer Pamphlet that was given to you either by myself before I provided you with "specific assistance" concerning the property, or by the licensee who represents you. That pamphlet outlines the duties that real estate licensees owe the public in all relationships. Please note that these duties do not include the duty "to conduct an independent investigation of a property". You are specifically advised that I and my firm have not conducted an independent investigation of this property, and do not plan to do so.

Determining the condition of the property, which was acquired in foreclosure by a lending institution, is your responsibility. What is required by law to be disclosed by myself as a licensee is attached hereto and represents all the information that I will be providing.

Finally, please note the waiver form that is part of this package. Alaska law provides that a buyer and seller may waive the obligation for them to complete the form provided by the Alaska Real Estate Commission. This institutional owner requires this waiver be executed as a condition of selling the property to you.

Seller does not agree to comply or bring property into compliance with any and all violation notices or requirements noted or issued by any governmental authority, or actions in any court on account thereof, against or affecting the property at the date of settlement of this contract, unless expressly addressed in the Seller's Addendum or Counter Offer. Buyer specifically agrees to comply or bring property into compliance with any government code or other requirements.
15. The Seller requires 72 hours prior to settlement to review and execute any lender required documents, HUD1, and/or any other documents requiring the Seller's signature. 16. Prohibited sale: The following are strictly prohibited from directly or indirectly purchasing any property owned or managed by Premiere Asset Services: (i) employees of Wells Fargo, its affiliates or subsidiaries and their immediate family members; and (ii) the agents, employees and family members of the listing real estate agent or agency.

22. FINAL OFFER ACCEPTANCE IS SUBJECT TO INVESTOR APPROVAL.
23. Seller shall have a minimum of thirty (30) days from the earlier of the closing date or the date upon which Seller receives a copy of a title insurance commitment/title report within which to resolve title exceptions, defects, or other title issues which in any way impede or impair Seller's ability to convey insurable title. If, within such thirty (30) day period, Seller determines that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such matters, the Buyer (I) may take title in its then state, thereby waiving any title objections, or (II) terminate the contract and receive a refund of any deposit as Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy. Alternatively, in such circumstances, Seller may terminate the contract and refund Buyer's deposit, such refund being Buyer's exclusive remedy for such termination. In the event Seller fails to resolve such issues within the aforesaid thirty (30) day period, it shall be presumed that Seller has determined that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such issues.

25. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addendum, or counter offer, in any action or proceeding between buyer and seller, seller does not agree to indemnify or hold broker(s) harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, cost, damages or expenses incurred by Broker(s).
26. Seller makes no representation and advises buyers to make their own investigation to determine the source of the water supply and type of sewage disposal system.
27. This property may be subject to a redemption period per your State's requirements. It is important that you check with the closing attorney or closing agent on your sale to see if these periods have expired, as the subject property would not be available for closing until the period that applies has expired, or could possibly not close due to a prior mortgagor or lien holder exercising their option according to the applicable period that would apply in your State. Seller makes no guarantees or representations on timeframes of expiration of redemption periods as may apply in your State. Should one of the above periods apply to your sale, and prohibit closing, Buyer may exercise their option to cancel the contract of sale and receive earnest monies back from Seller. No additional compensation will be paid by Seller for any expenditure made by Buyer regarding this property.
28. If the buyer is participating in a 1031 Exchange, the buyer(s) understands and agrees that all obligations related to the purchase of this property and the timeliness of the closing shall remain in full effect regardless of the buyer's participation in the 1031 Exchange. Addendum to the Purchase Contract accepted by Buyers for property located at: 342 N KLEVIN ST, ANCHORAGE, AK.

LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE

This contract is contingent upon a risk assessment or inspection of the property for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards at the Purchaser's expense until 9 p.m. on the seventh calendar day after ratification. The lead-based paint that is in good condition is not necessarily a hazard. See the EPA pamphlet Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home for more information. This contingency will terminate at the predetermined deadline unless the Purchaser (or Purchaser's agent) delivers to the Seller (or Seller's agent) a written contract addendum listing the specific existing deficiencies and corrections needed, either with a copy of the inspection and/or risk assessment report. The Seller may, at the Seller's option within 10 (ten) days after delivery of the addendum, elect in writing whether to correct the condition(s) prior to settlement. If the Seller will correct the condition, the Seller shall furnish the Purchaser with certification form a risk assessor or inspector demonstrating that the condition has been remedied before the close of the settlement. If the Seller does not elect to make the repairs, or if the Seller makes a counter-offer, the Purchaser shall have 10 (ten) days to respond to the counter-offer or remove this contingency and buy the property in "as is" condition or this contract shall become void. The purchaser may remove this contingency at any time without cause.
