Memo

Date: March 23, 2009
To: Buyers Considering Foreclosed Property
From: Niel Thomas, ABR, CCIM, CRS, Associate Broker
Bethany Stamper, Licensed Assistant
Subject: Licensee disclosure concerning property condition
Waiver of property disclosure form

The attached package consists of disclosures that I am making concerning the property at 12711 Tanada Cir.

In addition to the information in the pages attached, the following disclosures are provided:

Various amounts of deferred maintenance. Stair balusters being replaced. Carpet loose in places. Some light fixtures missing.

When you make an offer on this property you are required to initial your receipt of this cover memo and every page of the package.

Please review the Alaska Real Estate Commission Consumer Pamphlet that was given to you either by myself before I provided you with "specific assistance" concerning the property, or by the licensee who represents you. That pamphlet outlines the duties that real estate licensees owe the public in all relationships. Please note that these duties do not include the duty "to conduct an independent investigation of a property". You are specifically advised that I and my firm have not conducted an independent investigation of this property, and do not plan to do so.

Determining the condition of the property, which was acquired in foreclosure by a lending institution, is your responsibility. What is required by law to be disclosed by myself as a licensee is attached hereto and represents all the information that I will be providing.

Finally, please note the waiver form that is part of this package. Alaska law provides that a buyer and seller may waive the obligation for them to complete the form provided by the Alaska Real Estate Commission. This institutional owner requires this waiver be executed as a condition of selling the property to you.

Property will need many minor repairs at time of dewinterization.

The pages that follow are the seller's Standard Counter Offer and Addendum. They are included for information purposes only and are not required to make an offer to purchase. Should your offer be accepted, the seller will prepare this document and it will become part of the final ratified contract.

You are encouraged, however, to review these forms. They contain many provisions that are common to institutionally-owned sellers. These provisions are not consistent with much of what is found in the Alaska MLS Purchase and Sale agreement. To the extent that the Alaska agreement differs from this seller's attached eight-page agreement, the latter is controlling and supersedes the Alaska agreement.
